OSTRICH FEATHERS IS COAST INDUSTRY

Southern California affords an ideal climate for the raising of ostriches.

The warm dry climate making it very easy to raise these birds as a profitable industry. Arizona is raising many birds where most of raw stock comes from that is used in this factory.

A factory of large proportions has been established in Los Angeles for the manufacture of these feathers in to boas and fancy hat ornaments. These will be marketed in a unique way as the output will be placed on the market direct through the mail, giving the consumer the benefit of this saving in cost. These are made in an undecorated beautiful combination of colors. The fall fashions most emphatically stamp approval on these leather neck pieces.

SCHOOL TABLETS.

Good quality written paper, 50 and 10c per pound. Job Department, Revue office.

Washington special says forthcoming note of United States to Great Britain is based upon two fundamental complaints: That the so-called British blockade of Germany is illegal because it is not "effective" and that the blockade of neutral ports in the manner carried on by the British Admiralty, is equivalent to international law and grossly unfair to American shippers.
